

A Channeled 3- Day Intensive

Quantum Healing & Life Reset

Monk Mind Alliance

This is not a workshop. It is an initiation, into the deepest layer of yourself. Guided by Kamalika's own channeled process that has quietly transformed several lives since 2021.

Day 1 Initiation & Connection

- Energetic meditative initiation into I AM Consciousness
Entering beyond thought, identity and conditioning; into the source of awareness itself
- Exploration of the Garden of the Pulse
Kamalika's own revealed sacred inner space, the source of creation, accessed through mindful awareness
- Entry into The Pulse - the blue lake of all unmanifested phenomena
Pure witnessing. No doing, no interacting - presence itself is the practice
- Learning the art of pure witnessing at the quantum level

The Grace of I AM ~ In April 2021, during a deep silence meditation, Kamalika was led into this Sacred Space. From April to October 2021 she practised within the Heart of the Garden of the Pulse, and without effort, found solution after solution to long-held personal challenges. Since October 2021, every student who completed the course and practised sincerely has continued to grow across all areas of life.

Day 2 Tools & Manifestation

- Moving beyond the ego
Understanding and dissolving the ego's hold on perception and experience
- Healing through family members and others
Using your relationships as a mirror and a channel for healing
- Addressing chronic pain at the quantum level
- 3-stage meditation for connecting with your deepest self
- Space preparation - emotional and material decluttering
Clearing inner and outer environments to create space for new energy
- Daily basics : sleep, eating, travel - approached with deeper intent
Bringing quantum awareness into the smallest, most ordinary moments of your day
- Integration & embodiment practices
How to interact with your body, ask the right questions, navigate challenges and release stuck emotions with ease

Day 3 Quantum Life Review & Corrective Path

- Structured quantum life review, where you are vs where you truly want to be
- Goal setting from your newly healed, expanded state of awareness
Not from the old conditioned mind, from the clarity that emerges after deep healing

- Corrective path charted a clear, direction forward
Leaving with not just a feeling, but a map
